The Publishers are permitted to print the following Note from the Rector of Trinity Parish.

THIS Choir Office-Book needs no commendation from me, or any one else, to help it on its way through the parishes of the land. Compiled by Dr. Messiter, who completes, this year, a quarter of a century's service as organist of Trinity Church, and published by the Messrs. Young, to whom we owe so much in the line of Church literature, it carries its credentials on its title page, and deserves the welcome prepared for it in advance in our choir-rooms and churches, and in those homes where sacred music is a favorite study, and a delightful recreation.

PREFACE.

THE Plainsong is the foundation, or first principle, of all music used in the service of the Church. The simplest form of Plainsong consists of a recitation on one note, with an inflection of varying length at the close of each sentence, or at the close of the entire recitation. Certain phrases of this nature have been, from time immemorial, associated with particular parts of the Church service: and, somewhat varied or corrupted in the course of many centuries, still survive: testifying, in their way, to the primitive and Catholic character of the Church which so retains them.

Plainsong includes the Gregorian Tones and the traditional ritual music for the various parts of the Church service: also, Masses and other unharmonized music written in obsolete scales and notation. The Gregorian Tones take their name from Pope Gregory the Great, who reformed and set in order the Church chants of his day, A. D. 590. The Tones, or tunes, themselves are of still greater antiquity; it is claimed that they were used at the consecration of Solomon's Temple: considered musically, they are so rudimentary, that something very similar may easily be supposed to have been used. Originally sung, of necessity, in unison; something of their primitive ruggedness is retained by continuing the unison treatment: but as a more or less free organ accompaniment is usually employed, there seems no reason why vocal harmony should not be also allowed. Practically, it will be found an agreeable relief, and a convenient means of special effect, to sing occasional verses in parts.

By Anglican music, we understand music written for the Eng'ish Church, and to English words: such music being generally in harmony for four or more voices, and consequently in modern scales. These conditions are first found in operation at the English Reformation, when the Church service was translated into the "vulgar tongue," and the Plainsong adapted to English words. Immediately after the publication, in 1550, of the first Prayer-book of Edward the Sixth, with the Plainsong adapted by John Merbecke, leading English musicians set themselves to furnish harmonized settings. Numerous Litanies and sets of Responses were written, mostly founded on the Plainsong, which was assigned to the Tenor voice; as in the service by Tallys, which has come to be accepted as the standard setting. Tallys's responses were, however, not intended for ordinary use: they are called "Extraordinary Responsalls upon Festivalls." The harmonized Ferial Responses and Litany, as given in this book and everywhere sung, have the Plainsong in the Treble, with simple harmonies: Tallys's Litany retains the Plainsong in the Treble, but has elaborate harmonies, which are not only difficult to sing, but require a very deliberate delivery.

A similar process was applied to the Gregorian Tones, which were harmonized with the Plainsong in the Tenor: the Plainsong element was, however, soon dropped, and the present form of the single chant permanently adopted, the Tenor part having no special importance: the double chant was a later development, dating from about 1700. The settings of the Canticles to varied music, technically called "Services," date also from about 1550, Tallys's Service in D-Minor being probably the earliest.

In this book will be found all the Ritual music required for the most elaborate Service of either Anglican or Gregorian systems: with the addition of a few Canticles in Anthem form, selected with a view to general utility: the needs of small Mission Churches have also been considered. The Plainsong is, in all cases, provided with a suggestive accompaniment for the Organ; in some instances for the first time, as in the Offices of Holy Communion and Burial: the Priest's part being in the Tenor, its natural position; and the portions for Choir in the upper part of the accompaniment.

Psalm 24.—Domini est terra.

THE earth is the LORD'S, and all that | there - in | is : the compass of the world, and | they · that | dwell · there- | in.

2 For He hath founded it up- | on · the | seas : and pre- | pared · it up- | on · the | floods.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill | of · the | LORD : or who shall rise up | in · His | ho - ly | place.

4 Even he that hath clean hands, and a | pure · = | heart : and that hath not lift up his mind unto vanity, nor | sworn · to de- | ceive · his | neighbour.

5 He shall receive the blessing | from · the | LORD : and righteousness from the | God · of | his · sal- | vation.

6 This is the generation of them that | seek · = | Him : even of them that | seek · thy | face · O | Jacob.

7 Lift up your heads O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye ever- | last - ing | doors : and the King of | glo - ry | shall · come | in.

8 Who is the | King · of | glory : It is the LORD strong and mighty, even the | Lord · = | mighty · in | battle.

9 Lift up your heads O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye ever- | last - ing | doors : and the King of | glo - ry | shall · come | in.

10 Who is the | King · of | glory : Even the LORD of hosts, | He · is the | King · of | glory.

O PRAISE the Lord, laud ye the | Name · of the | Lord : praise it O ye | serv - ants | of · the | Lord.

2 Ye that stand in the house | of · the | Lord : in the courts of the | house · of | our · = | God.

3 O praise the Lord, for the | Lord · is | gracious : O sing praises unto His Name, | for · = | it · is | lovely.

4 The Lord is gracious and | mer - ci- | ful : long-suffering | and · of | great · = | goodness.

5 The Lord is loving unto | eve - ry | man : and His mercy is | o - ver | all · His | works.

6 All Thy works praise | Thee · O | Lord : and Thy saints give | thanks · = | un - to | Thee.

7 The Lord doth build up Je- | ru - sa- | lem : and gather together the | out - casts of | Is - ra- | el.

8 He healeth those that are | broken · in | heart : and giveth medicine to | heal · = | their · = | sickness.

9 The Lord's delight is in them that | fear · = | Him : and put their | trust · in | His · = | mercy.

10 Praise the Lord, O Je- | ru - sa- | lem : praise | thy · God | O · = | Sion.

11 For He hath made fast the bars | of · thy | gates : and hath blessed thy | child - ren with- | in · = | thee.

12 He maketh peace | in · thy | borders : and filleth thee | with · the | flour · of | wheat.

13 He is our God, even the God of whom | cometh · sal- | vation : God is the Lord, by | whom · we es- | cape · = | death.

14 O God, wonderful art Thou in Thy | ho - ly | places : even the God of Israel, He will give strength and power unto His people. | Bless - ed | be · = | God.

Glory be to the Father, | and · to the | Son : and | to · the | Ho - ly | Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ev - er | shall be : world with- | out · end. | A · = | men.

Burial of the Dead.

FELTON.

LORD, let me know my end, and the number | of · my | days : that I may be certified how | long · I | have · to | live.

2 Behold, Thou hast made my days as it were a | span · = | long : and mine age is even as nothing in respect of Thee, and verily every man living is | al - to- | geth - er | vanity.

3 For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth him- | self · in | vain : he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell | who · shall | gath - er | them.

4 And now Lord, | what is · my | hope : Truly my | hope · is | even · in | Thee.

5 Deliver me from all | mine · of- | fences : and make me not a re- | buke · un- | to · the | foolish.

6 When Thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, Thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth | fretting · a | garment : every man therefore | is · but | van - i- | ty.

7 Hear my prayer O LORD, and with Thine ears con- | sider · my | calling : hold not Thy | peace · = | at · my | tears :

8 For I am a | strang - er with | Thee : and a sojourner, as | all · my | fath - ers | were.

9 O spare me a little, that I may re- | cover · my | strength : before I go hence, | and · be | no · more | seen.

GOSS—BEETHOVEN.

10 Lord, Thou hast | been · our | refuge : from one gener- | a - tion | to · an- | other.

11 Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the | world · were | made : Thou art God from everlasting, and | world · with- | out · = | end.

12 Thou turnest man | to · de- | struction : again Thou sayest, Come a- | gain, · ye | children · of | men.

13 For a thousand years in Thy sight are | but · as | yesterday : seeing that is past | as · a | watch · in the | night.

14 As soon as Thou scatterest them they are even | as · a | sleep : and fade away | sudden - ly | like · the | grass.

15 In the morning it is green, and | grow - eth | up : but in the evening it is cut down, | dri - ed | up · and | withered.

16 For we consume away in | Thy · dis- | pleasure : and are afraid at Thy | wrath - ful | in - dig- | nation.

17 Thou hast set our misdeeds be- | fore · = | Thee : and our secret sins in the | light of · Thy | coun - te- | nance.

18 For when Thou art angry, all our | days · are | gone : we bring our years to an end, as it | were · a | tale · that is | told.

19 The days of our age are threescore years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to | four - score | years : yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soon passeth it a- | way · and | we · are | gone.

20 So teach us to | number · our | days : that we may ap- | ply · our | hearts · unto | wisdom.

GLORY be to the Father, | and · to the | Son : and | to · the | Ho - ly | Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ev - er | shall be : world with- | out · end. | A · = | men.

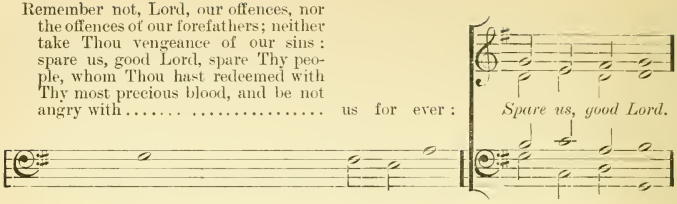
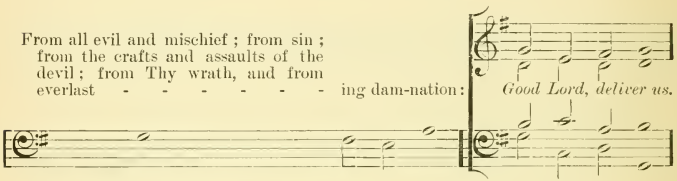
O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinity, three Persons and one..... God: have mercy upon us, mis-er-a-ble sinners.

Remember not, Lord, our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers; neither take Thou vengeance of our sins: spare us, good Lord, spare Thy people, whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy most precious blood, and be not angry with..... ..... us for ever:



From all evil and mischief; from sin; from the crafts and assaults of the devil; from Thy wrath, and from everlast - - - - - - - ing dam-nation:



From all blindness of heart; from pride, vain-glory, and hypocrisy; from envy, hatred, and malice, and all unchari- | ta-ble-ness: Good Lord, deliver us.

From all inordinate and sinful affections; and from all the deceits of the world, the flesh, | and the devil: Good Lord, deliver us.

From lightning and tempest; from plague, pestilence, and famine; from battle and murder, and from | sud-den death: Good Lord, deliver us.

By the mystery of Thy holy Incarnation: by Thy holy Nativity and Circumcision; by Thy Baptism, Fasting, | and Tempt-ation. Good Lord, deliver us.

By Thine Agony and Bloody Sweat; by Thy Cross and Passion: by Thy precious Death and Burial; by Thy glorious Resurrection and Ascension; and by the coming of the | Ho-ly Ghost. Good Lord, deliver us.

In all time of our tribulation; in all time of our prosperity; in the hour of death, and in the | day of judgment, Good Lord, deliver us.

THE BURIAL SERVICE.

WITH PLAINSONG.

I am the | resurrection and the life, ... saith the Lord:
He that believeth in — me, { though he were / dead, yet } shall he live:
And whosoever liv- / eth and believeth } in — me, shall nev - er die.

VII 6.
I.... | know that my Re-deemer liv-eth, { and that He shall / stand at the lat- } up — on the earth.
ter day
And though af- / ter my skin / worms de- } stroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see — God:
Whom I shall / see for myself, / and mine eyes } shall behold —, and not anoth — er.

We-brought | nothing into this world —, { and it is cer- / tain we can } car-ry nothing out.
The Lord gave, / and the Lord / hath } tak-en a-way —; blessed be the Name — of the Lord,

THE ANTHEM.

Lord —, | let me know my end, and the number of my days : that I may be certified how long I have to live.

Behold, Thou hast made my days as it were a span long : and mine age is even as nothing in respect of Thee ; and verily every man living is altogether vanity.

For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth himself in vain : he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell who shall gather them.

And now, Lord, what is my hope : Truly my hope is even in Thee.

Deliver me from all mine offences : and make me not a rebuke un the fool — ish.

When Thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, Thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth fretting a garment : every man therefore is but vanity.

Hear my prayer, O LORD, and with Thine ears consider my calling : hold not Thy peace at my tears :

For I am a stranger with Thee : and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

O spare me a little, that I may recover my strength : before I go hence, and be no more seen.

Lord —, | Thou hast been our refuge : from one generation to anoth — er.

Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the world were made : Thou art God from everlasting, and world without — end.

Thou turnest man to destruction : again Thou sayest, Come again, ye children of men.

For a thousand years in Thy sight are but as yesterday : seeing that is past as a watch in the night.

As soon as Thou scatterest them they are even as a sleep : and fade away suddenly like the grass.

In the morning it is green, and groweth up : but in the evening it is cut down, dried up, and withered.

For we consume away in Thy displeasure : and are afraid at Thy wrathful indignation.

Thou hast set our misdeeds before Thee : and our secret sins in the light of Thy countenance.

For when Thou art angry all our days are gone : we bring our years to an end, as it were a tale that is told.

The days of our age are threescore years and ten ; and though men be so strong that they come to fourscore years : yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow ; so soon passeth it away, and we are gone.

So teach us to number our days : that we may apply our hearts unto wis — dom.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son : and to the Holy Ghost ;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be : world without end. A — men.

AFTER THE LESSON.

our hearts; shut not Thy merciful ears to o prayer; but spare us, Lord most ho- ly,
O God most mighty, O ho - ly and mer-ci-ful Sav-iour, Thou most worth-y Judge e-

Jubilate.

Jubilate Deo.—Psalm c.

O be | joyful in the Lord, all ye lands : serve the LORD with gladness, and come before His presence with a song.

Be ye sure that the Lord He is God : it is He that hath made us, and not we ourselves ; we are His people, and the sheep of His pas — ture.

O go your way into His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise : be thankful unto Him, and speak good of His — Name.

For the LORD is gracious, His mercy is *ever*lasting ; and His truth endureth from generation to genera — tion.

Magnificat.—St. Luke 1 : 46.

For — | He hath regarded : the lowliness of His handmaiden.

For be- | hold, from hence — forth — : all generations shall call me blessed.

For — | He that is mighty hath magnified me : and holy is His Name —.

And His | mercy is on them that fear Him : throughout all generations.

He hath | showed strength with His arm — : He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts — .

He hath | put down the mighty from their seat — : and hath exalted the humble and meek — .

He hath | filled the hungry with good — things — : and the rich He hath sent empty away —.

He re- | membering His mercy hath holpen His servant Israel : as He promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed, for ever.

Cantate Domino.—Psalm xcviii.

O – | sing unto the Lord a new – song : for He hath done marvellous things.

With His own right hand, and with His holy arm : hath He gotten Himself the victory.

The LORD declared His salvation : His righteousness hath He openly showed in the sight of the hea — then.

He hath remembered His mercy and truth toward the house of Israel : and all the ends of the world have seen the salvation of our — God.

Praise the Lord upon the harp : sing to the harp with a psalm of thanks — giv — ing.

With trumpets also and shawms : O show yourselves joyful before the LORD the King.

Let the sea make a noise, and all that therein is : the round world, and they that dwell therein.

Let the floods clap their hands, and let the hills be joyful together before the LORD : for He cometh to judge the earth.

With righteousness shall He judge the world : and the people with – equity.
